

FEEDBACK FORM

Date 4/12/15

I am very grateful to the Southern Calif. Disability Law office of Rachel Slocombe. From start to finish, they were with me every step of the way, explaining to me the various steps, contacting my doctor for information regarding my disabilities and making sure everything was done as quickly as possible. Due to my disabilities, I would have never been able to do this on my own and could have <sup>ended</sup> ended up without enough money to live on. All staff, up to and including Rachel Slocombe, were always very courteous with me and returned my calls & emails quickly with whatever information I added for. I was highly impressed! As of mid-March I began receiving monthly payments from Social Security and recently I received back pay totaling $9,500. Obviously, this is such a relief to me! I know others with disabilities that are the same as mine or worse that are not approved for SSD. I think the BIG difference is the help I received from Rachel and her ~~father~~ <sup>father's</sup> staff. Thank you very sincerely!
